

Republic of Yemen
Sana'a University
Vice Rector for Postgraduate Studies
& Scientific Research
Faculty of Arts & Humanities
Department of Islamic Studies

Appeal for Justice against the People of Deviation and Despotism in Responding to the Jabarite and Qadarite Doctrines and Refuting their False Postulations
By Badruddin Mohammed ibn Yousef ibn Hibah Al-Fadhli Al-Qudami (Who died after: 770 Hijri): A Study and Investigation

A thesis submitted to Department of Islamic Studies, Faculty of Arts & Humanities, Sana'a University in fulfillment of the requirements for a Master's degree in Creed

By:

Abdul-Khaleq Mohammed Abdullah Al-Mahdi

Supervisor:

Dr. Halima Abdullah Nasser Jahaf

1445 Hijri – 2024

Abstract:

Thesis Title: Appeal for Justice against the People of Deviation and Despotism in Responding to the Jabarite and Qadarite Doctrines and Refuting their False Postulations, Written by Al-Faqih Al-Allama, Mohammed ibn Yousef ibn Hibah Al-Fadhli Al-Qudami (Who died after: 770 Hijri).

By: Abdul-Khaleq Mohammed Abdullah Al-Mahdi, to the Faculty of Arts and Humanities, Department of Islamic Studies, Sana'a University, for the degree of Master in Creed.

Main Supervisor: Dr. Halima Abdullah Nasser Jahaf.

This thesis consists of two sections: the study and the investigation, preceded by an introduction, followed by a conclusion and indexes. Introduction: This part discusses the reasons for selecting the book, its scientific significance, and The Study and Investigation plan.

The First Section, The Study, consists of two chapters. Chapter One deals with introducing the author, his name, his lineage, his birth, his upbringing, his death, his creed, his jurisprudential doctrine, his Sheikhs, his students, his books and effects, and explaining his era in political, religious, scientific, social and economic terms.

Chapter Two also dealt with: the study of the book, in which the investigation of the name of the book, its title, authorship attribution, the motivation for its authorship, its sources, the status and scientific value of the book, methodology employed in the investigation, description of manuscripts, and examples thereof.

The Second Section: Investigation, consists of three chapters. Then the conclusion: Summarizing the findings, providing recommendations, and presenting the general technical indexes of the thesis.